DR. LINDA LOGAN BIOGRAPHY

Dynamic, insightful, inspirational, down to earth, riveting—these are the monikers associated with Dr. Linda Logan, a motivational teacher, speaker, counselor, “life coach” and ordained minister. Dr. Logan has conducted workshops and intensive training sessions throughout the United States and Canada.

Talented and versatile, Dr. Logan is committed to the empowerment and fulfillment of all people. She has effectively coached hundreds in discovering solutions to create better lives, a better community, and a better world. Her greatest desire is for people to realize who they are from the inside out and for them to use this knowledge to tap into their own inner genius.

She worked extensively with lecturer and author Louise Hay. In this capacity, she was one of the primary presenters at workshops that were attended by hundreds of participants from around the globe. Over the past 16 years she has been the principal presenter at numerous seminars and workshops for individuals and corporations, through her company, “LINDA'S LOGIC INC”.

Dr. Logan has worked with the Children's Defense Fund, Washington, D.C.; she conducted bi-annual workshops with interns of the Freedom School; and, she worked with the National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc., Orange County, CA. At Americorps she served as a spokesperson for the Black Church Youth Programs. She conducted empowerment groups with inmates of the Fred C.Nelles Correctional Institution (California Youth Authority), Whittier, CA.

As a counselor, she leads on-going mastermind support groups. She maintains a counseling practice where she coaches individuals in identifying their issues of conflict and providing them with useful tools for effective and successful resolutions. For over 15 years, she was the speaker for the Wednesday evening services, as well as the facilitator for the Sunday Services, at the City of Angels Church of Religious Science, Los Angeles, CA.

Dr. Logan until her recent move to Hemet, Ca. was on the faculty of the MECCA (Metaphysical Evolvment Center at City of Angels) Learning Center where she taught a class entitled It's All About You. Dr. Logan continues to encourage and inspire personal growth and empowerment at numerous speaking engagements and workshops through her recently formed company, "Linda's Logic Inc." Dr. Logan is in the process of writing a book—for which her students and clients have long awaited—that is sure to spread her "inner genius" teachings to the global populous.

As a lecturer, she expresses herself through humor and with clarity in language that is understandable to all who hear her.

Special certifications:

Dispute Resolution – Loyola Law School, Los Angeles
CDC – PARENTING PROGRAM

Dr. Logan resides in Hemet, Ca; she has one daughter and three grandchildren.

Since moving to Hemet, Dr. Logan has branched out into a new area. She has become a part of the San Jacinto Unified School District as an instructor with their ASES after school program. For her it has been one of the most rewarding chapters of her career. The specific program has been two pronged including a reading comprehension program, called Reading Intervention offering an innovative approach to improving student reading skills and a program appropriately called Social Literacy with subject matter ranging from introduction of ethnic foods to racial diversity and social adeptness and money management. The program has been enthusiastically received by hundreds of elementary and middle school students.
